

Pizza Time

This humorous level D book mentions the different ingredients that might be used to make a tasty pizza. It focuses on the language arts, mathematics and health areas of the curriculum.

High Frequency Words: we, is, put, on, our, and

Suggested Ideas and Activities:

- Brainstorm different toppings for a pizza and discuss if they would be healthy choices
- Sort ingredients into healthy and unhealthy choices
- Make a class pizza
- Graph their four favourite pizza toppings
- Record and illustrate their own pizza
- Visit a local pizza restaurant
- Dramatize the story then students create their own version to share
- Discover the shapes pizzas can be made into, for example : square, circle, rectangular
- Divide pizza shapes into various simple fractions
- Introduce/review quotation marks
- Enjoy reading different books on pizza and other foods

Suggested Readings:

Making Cookies, Curriculum Plus
After School Snacks, Curriculum Plus
Pig Pen Party, Curriculum Plus
The Pizza Visit, Curriculum Plus
Strega Nona, by Tomie dePaola
Pancakes, Pancakes, by Eric Carle
Pizza at Sally's, by Monica Wellington