

Summer Fun

This seasonal nonfiction level D book features outdoor summer activities children can enjoy. It relates to the science, health, mathematics and language arts curriculum.

High Frequency Words: the, is, can, in, to, on, at

Suggested Ideas and Activities:

- Enjoy a class outing and participating in some summer activities
- Participate in following directional instructions using common prepositions for example: in, to, on, at
- Discuss and list the different summer activities they enjoy
- Compare and contrast winter and summer activities
- Dramatize a summer activity or sport they can do
- Graph their favourite season
- Discuss summer weather and how to stay healthy and safe
- Write and illustrate a class book on "Summer Fun"
- Complete individual 'I can' booklets for summer
- Create a class riddle book on summer fun
- Introduce/review quotation marks and question marks
- Discuss and list healthy foods to have in summer
- Make an 'I Can' bulletin board about summer fun
- Enjoy other books on summer

Suggested Readings:

And Then Comes Summer, by Tom Brenner

A Summery Saturday Morning, by Margaret Mahy Scaredy

Squirrel at the Beach, by Melanie Watt

Mama, Is It Summer Yet?, by Nikki McClure

The Swimming Lessons, Curriculum Plus

Camping, Curriculum Plus

The Rainy Day, Curriculum Plus